NORTH CAROLINIAN

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3, 1873.

New Books Periodicals, &c.

THE GALAXY.—This well established magazine crowns its sixteenth volume with the December number, which we find one of the most attractive we have ever examined.

The variety of its contents and the the uniform excellence of the articles are fairly noticeable

The well known writers, Rich'd B. Kimball, Hon. Gideon Welles, Col. De Forest, Justin McCarthy, Rich'd Grant White, General Custer, and Junius Henri Browne are all represented by characteristic articles; after which come three spirited short stories and the usual departments.

The leading article, upon the Czarovitch of Russia, besides its graphic description of the future Czar, goes back to compare the leading spirits of the last century in Russia—Peter the Great, Elizabeth, and Catharine—with the enlightened sovereign of the present gigantic empire. The revolving pictures drawn of the licentious and degraded court of Catherine II. are almost past belief.

General Custer, the dashing cavalry officer, gives a thrilling narrative of his expedition in search of some white woman who had been captured by the savages of Arizona.

Richard Grant White, the great authority upon words, has used several thousands of them in punishing a pundit whom everybody supposed to be buried beyond the power of resurrection long ago. The pundit must have the vitality of nine cats and a well developed phoenix to withstand so determined a punishing at the hands of such a master.

An article upon the Othellos of the stage compares the acting of the great Italian tragedian, Salvini, with that of Booth' Macready, Forrest, Davenport, and other actors celebrated in that character.

"What became of Louis XVII.?" is a curious bit of history, reviewing the case of the seven aspirants to royalty who have claimed to be the son of Louis XVI. of France, supposed to have been smuggled out of prison in childhood.

A suggestive and well-timed article upon the American system of money and the recent panic is contributed by Rich'd B. Kimball, whose reputation as an able financier, as well as author, attaches peculiar value to his article.

"P'tit Lulu" is a delightful bit of word-painting conveyed in a short story of the Island of Jersey. It is from the pen of Theodore Gift, a young English writer of great promise.

A very clever and ingenious story called "A Case of Conscience" has for its text the question, "How should a young man behave to the lady he is engaged to if he finds he does not love her?"

"A Droll Acquaintance" is a French story, showing how four watchful and designing persons were outwitted by an artful adventurer, assisted by a romantic young lady.

"Fishing" describes in graceful lines the piscatorial efforts of a pair of lovers who catch nothing but each other; a very bright and glowing poem. There are three other poems, all of which belong to the dismal, suicidal class so pleasing to poets.

The departments of Literature and Science are up to the usual high standard of the magazine, and the only fault we can find with the number is the absence of the usual department of Humor, which is not atoned for by the addition of the index to volume XVI., and a score of jokes interspersed among the fascinating advertisements.

SCRIBNER'S FOR DECEMBER.—A second profusely illustrated article on Louisiana opens SCRIBNER'S for December. Mr. King's first article on this subject created an interest which the present paper cannot fail to deepen. In the same number is a "popular science" paper on "Savage Man," with very striking illustrations; an interesting sketch, with portrait of Proctor, the celebrated young English astronomer now in this country, by John Fraser; Frode's second paper on an English Abbey, in which the Wat Tyler insurrection is touched upon; a timely and able discussion, by Prof. Atwater, of Princeton, of the Specie Payment question; "Black Rock," a story; a poem by Bret Harte, entitled Luke (in the Colorado Park—1873); and explanation of "Carlism in Spain," by J. W. Preston: and continuations of Miss Trafton's story, "Katherine Earle," and Mrs. Davis's "Earthen Pitchers."

Dr. Holland, in Topics of the Time, discusses "Some Religious Newspapers," "Provision for Wives and Children," "The American Gentleman of Leisure," and "How Much has been Gained" toward Christian Union. In "The Old Cabinet" there is "The House on the Corner," "The Commonplace," "The Invisible Hinge," and "Something Better than Truth." In Home and Society, Culture and Progress, Nature and Science, and Etchings a great many subjects are briefly treated,

The January number of SCRIBNER'S will have features of special interest.

OLD AND NEW.—The December number of "OLD AND NEW" closes out the volume and the year with a lively number, having some ninety pages of stories. These include two serials, by Mr. Burnand and Mr. Perkins; a spirited translation by Miss Hale of a curious modern allegory by George Sands, and a telling narrative (partly fiction, is it not?) of Appache experience by Mark Sibley Severance, who has been there. The serious papers of the number are, Mr. Hale's introduction, with some seasonable and reasonable suggestions for Congressmen before "school begins," and a cogent paper by Mr. Quincy against the practices that prevail about exempting "charities" from taxation. The poetry is, a commemoration by T. G. A., of the perilous ice-float journey of the Polaris crew, and some sweet quaint Christmas carols collected by Rev. J. Vila Blake, a competent judge and editor. A graceful paper on Ferns, by Mrs. Millington, and one of Miss Hinckley's charming articles on "Country Sights and Sounds," contain the Natural History. The Examiner Introduction has some rather comical reminiscences about the late "Knickerbocker Magazine" and its late editor, Mr. Clark. The book notices, quite elaborate, and the Musical Review, quite spirited, fill out the number. Roberts Brothers, Boston are the Publishers.

The leading paper in the December Atlantic is from the pen of L. J. Jennings, and is a review of the life of the English statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, Mr. Jennings regards the triumphs of Disraeli as something wonderful, since he had no social friends, no landed property, no newspaper advocates to help him. He writes: "The world honors courage, and when the world tried to beat down Disraeli, and he beat it down instead, it became his friend. But, for long and weary years, it was an apparently hopeless contest. The only friendly hand extended to him was the hand of that woman whose remains he followed to a wintry grave last December, amid a blinding snow-storm, bareheaded and alone. If any body desires to know what a wife may be to her husband; with what pure unselfishness and devotion she can give up everything that she has to his service, and find a noble happiness in doing it; what a support and comfort she can be to him under the inevitable sorrows and misfortunes of life; how magnificently she can inspire him to fresh exertions, and stand as a bulwark between the adverse world and himself—any one who wishes to comprehend all this need only read the story of Disraeli's married life." Among the other contributors to the December Atlantic are T. B. Aldrich. J. G. Whitter, Francis Parkman, G. P. Lathrop, Clara F. Guernsey and Maurice L. Thompson.

WOODS HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—The December number of Wood's Household Magazine is replete with good reading—entertaining sketches, stories, poems, &c., &c. Its table of contents embraces the following articles: "A Better Country" Mary Hartwell; An Engineer's Yarn, Albert Willsams, Jr., Our Party at Sea, Rev. J. S. Breckinridge; Two Enthusiasts, H. M. Lewtral; Presence of Mine, Rev. F. W. Holland; Our Babies, D. A. Gorton, M. D.; Blessedness of Riches, Tenoroon; Hans Doodledee, Rudolph Mentel; installment of Max Kromer, author of Jessica's First Prayer; Codfish and Potatoes, Chapter II, by Elennor Kird; Misery Jippeau, Chapter VII. VIII, by H. V. Osborne. In addition to these articles are several pretty poems, a charming little Cottage Design, and editorial departments embracing Our Housekeeper, Correspondence, Literary Notices, Laughing Stock, &c., &c. The engraving for this month is entitled "Old Folks."

All the above for only one dollar per year—or with chromo Yosemite one dollar and a half. Address, WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE, Newburgh, N. Y.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The December number of the Eclectic is at hand, and is filled, as usual, with things suited to every taste, and especially to such tastes as like a little solid food included in their monthly menage. This number is the closing one of the year and of the volume, and its appearance reminds readers that the time has come to send in next year's subscriptions. The Eclectic was never better than now, and never filled so exactly the requirements of a family magazine. It is a periodical which the most cultivated pater familias will find it profitable to consult, and which can not fail to carry an educating influence into every household that it penetrates.

The new volume begins next month, and we commend it to our readers as a magazine which can be relied on from year to year.

Published by E. R. PELTON, 108 Fulton Street, New York. Terms $5 a year; two copies, $9. Single number, 45 cents.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE.—This popular Magazine for Dec. opens with the continuation of "A New Hyperion," the interest of which is most happily sustained, the attractions of the romance being greatly enhanced by Dore's characteristic illustrations. An interesting illustrated description of Bangkok forms the continuation of the series of "Sketches of Eastern Travel," which is followed by a graphic description of social life and society at Washington in an article entitled "Life at the National Capital." S. C. Clarke contributes an interesting account of "A Day's Sport in East Florida," which will be read with pleasure by all who have visited the "Land of Flowers," or take any interest in field sports. Fiction is strongly represented by the continuation of William Black's charming serial, "The Princess of Thule;" an amusing story entitled, "The Long Fellow of Ti," by James McKay; and Miss S. W. Kellogg's delightful novelette, "The Livelies," which is concluded in this number. "The History of the Crisis," by K. Cornwallis, is a timely and able article on one present financial difficulties, which cannot fail to attract attention, and is worthy of careful reading and consideration. A very interesting description of "Monaco," the great gambling resort of Europe, is contributed by R. Davey. Two charming poems "Autum Leaves" and "The Problem," with the usual variety of entertaining "Gossip," and Reviews of New Books, complete a very attractive number. With the January issue, Lippincott's Magazine begins its new volume, and the conductors promise rare attractions for the new year.

HEARTH AND HOME.—This is one of the most beautiful monthly papers in the world. It is splendidly maintained and is a paper for the people. A single volume contains about $25,000 worth of splendid engravings, finely printed, and of a highly pleasing and instructive character. It has, also, a vast amount of the choicest reading, carefully prepared, and full of instruction. It contains excellent Edatorials on the various topics of the day, which gives the reader practical and useful information. Hearth and Home has a most capital Household Department, which will delight and greatly aid every Housekeeper. The Children's Department, is of surpassing interest to all the little people. In short, it is a paper that will please and profit both old and young in every Home. The subscription price is only $3 a year, including a beautiful Chromo, entitled "Mischief Brewing." Address ORANGE JUDD & Co., 245 Broadway, N. Y.

The grave question for the Representatives is, what is to be done with this heavy debt? In our embraced condition, it is beyond the ability of the people to pay even the interest. The first man in the General Assembly, to declare himself in favor of taxing the people, even to pay the interest, has not yet been found, and should there be a Legislator who would vote for such a tax, he would be consigned to private life, and to the privilege of paying his own expenses, should he again visit Raleigh. The Legislature has to perform the duty of discriminating between those Bonds that were honestly issued and used for the public benefit, and those tainted with fraud and collision, which should not be recognized either in law or morals.

Assuming that the 5th class, or special tax Bonds, and the 6th class, or war Bonds, not marketable will never be paid, then the Bonded debt would be $21,707,210. The annual interest on this sum would be $1,302,422. Can the people of the State, in their impoverished condition pay in addition to the State, County, Poor, and School Tax meet the interest?

Ought this debt to be paid dollar for dollar? Does strict justice demand it under present circumstances? These are grave questions, and will be answered by the Bondholder in the affirmative. I do not so believe. I hold, that in common honesty and justice, the holders of these bonds should lose, just in proportion to the losses sustained by the owners of the property, on the faith of which they loaned their money, which losses were the result of the war. Did these boudholders lend their money on the faith of the land alone? Certainly not. When these bonds were sold the property of the State consisted, besides the lands, of many millions of dollars worth of slaves, bankstocks, improvements on farms &c., and every kind of live stock. It was on the faith of all this property that the money was loaned. Fully two thirds of the property of the State was swept off by the war. Very little property was left to the farmer besides the land. This estimate will be admitted.

The public debt now due, bears no just proportion to the property of the State which it did when the debt was contracted; and if the whole debt be forced upon us, the effect will be that the poor farmer who has been taxed beyond his ability, will be sinking deeper and deeper in poverty, while the creditor will be enriched.

Any attempt to repudiate an honest debt is justly held as a dishonorable act, when the debtor is able to pay, but when means have been reduced, or he is manifestly unable to pay, or the payment of the whole debt would reduce him, and his family, to want and destitution, the case is different. The people of the State are not repudiators; they are willing to pay the public debt just to the amount of their ability; but they believe that the bondholder should loose on his bonds, in some fair proportion, to the losses of property, in which his bonds were predicated.

I assume that the losses of property by the war, was fully two thirds of the property owned in the State, and that one third of the debt would be a fair proportion to be paid, but the desire to effect an honorable adjustment might induce the people to make an effort to pay more. The manly course is to satisfy ourselves what amount we can pay, without impoverishing ourselves, and to make a direct proposition to the bondholders, to pay, say, one half of the principal and interest of these just debts. Propose that, if they will accede to it, the state will renew the bonds, to the amount proposed, with coupons, and levy a tax to pay the coupons, and to raise a sinking fund to pay the debt. The legislature will be compelled to act soon. Something must be done. If the members can

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is rapidly approaching the close of another year—the fifth of its publication. It has been our custom since its commencement not to rigidly enforce advance payment of subscriptions, but in many cases to continue sending to those who do not directly order it stopped. We were aware that we had a peculiar class of readers to whom our paper is almost a necessity, and we felt perfectly willing, when circumstances seemed to require it, to trust them to remit during the year. We now feel that we are not asking too much in requesting all to make prompt payment between this and January. We have been lenient, and hope no one will take undue advantage of it. The season is one of depression and dullness it is true, but it operates unfortunately and unfavorably upon publishers and makes it an important item to them, for though the amount of each unpaid subscription is comparatively small, in the aggregate they make a large sum. We confidently hope the parties owing us for one, two or more years will see and feel the necessity of remitting as speedily as possible.

A WORD ABOUT PARTY RESPONSIBILITY.

The Republican party is responsible for those measures and acts which it enforces or defends. To hold it accountable for every act of its servants is to condemn a community for every transgression of the law. No code of laws can make men honest; no organization can be entirely free from rascality. Laws can restrain the disorderly and punish dishonesty; organizations can repudiate rascality when found. Beyond this, neither law nor organization can be justly held responsible for the shortcomings of those who are shown distrusted. Human judgment is often in error; confidence, apparently well founded, is abused; men who hold good reputations fail; the trusted turn out rascals. This has been so from the foundation of time, and will, in all probability, continue to the end. The best we can hope for is that bad men as soon as known, shall be driven from power; that questionable public measures shall be denounced; that good men shall be elected to right the wrong done; and that a sharp watch be kept upon those who are for the time being called to represent and protect the people's interests. The purest individual that ever lived has made mistakes; has reposed confidence in unworthy men. To expect otherwise is to look for perfection in human nature. The best party that can be organized by the wisdom, intelligence, and patriotism of the nation will sometimes be led into the support of men who will prove unworthy of public confidence. To endorse the acts of these men would be to transfer their iniquity to the party itself; to promptly repudiate them is to elevate the party above reproach or censure. We should draw a broad line between the bad faith of a servant and the good intentions of his master. The Republican party has had its faithless servants, but in no case has it attempted to shield them from the punishment they merited. As soon as discovered the party has repudiated them, and entered before the people its earnest protest against their acts. The record of every Republican State convention gives evidence of its sterling morality among the masses of the people. Never in its history has its standard of public integrity stood as high as it does to-day. It demands honest men for public positions and is determined to have them. No measure, however, no character can hope to be whitewashed by the Republican party. Both men and measure must stand upon their merits. If they are just and true, the party will be quick to support and advocate them; if unjust and dishonest, they will be consigned to oblivion. We have faith in a party that stands guard over the actions of its servants; that is independent enough to exact from its leaders the highest qualities of personal character and official integrity. The Republic can never be in danger when so true and loyal a power guides the administration of its affairs.

We see it stated by parties averse to the war that the Virginius was not in reality an American vessel; that its crew were Cuban insurgents; that they hired an American captain at an enormous price to take them to Cuba, where they intended to reinforce the rebels and commit inhuman depredations; that the register covered a fraud and the American flag was really unfurled over the heads of a batch of pirates. The vessel tried to land, but was prevented. It escaped, was overtaken, and captured. The party advancing these statements insist that so far as the insult to our flag was concerned it was the captain of the Virginius that dishonored it by "hoisting it over a crew of plunderers and pirates."

TRIALS OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

In September last, when the financial panic raged in the city of New York like a great conflagration, the terror-stricken brokers and banker demanded of President Grant and Secretary Richardson that the Government should, in defiance of law, advance to the banks, upon the deposit of miscellaneous collaterals, the forty-four millions of greenback reserve, which should at once be issued and placed at their disposal. Imagining themselves to be the nation, and that its solvency depended upon their own, they sought to induce the President to take the responsibility of breaking the law, and to plead to Congress and the people the necessity of the case as an excuse and justification.

The President and Secretary Richardson, unmoved by the clamors of these panic-stricken hordes, refused to loan money in any event, and particularly upon the deposit of stock certificates as collaterals; but in view of the great distress which would necessarily ensue they consented to buy some $12,000,000 worth of United States bonds, so that the greenbacks thus exchanged would afford incidental relief; and thus the law was upheld, and yet a disposition shown to avert the ruin which reckless stock speculation had brought about.

Scarcely had the fierceness of this panic subsided, and the sober, second thought of the people had begun to realize of what great service the coolness and imperturbability of President Grant and Secretary Richardson were to the nation, when another unexpected outburst of passion has obtained.

The capture of the Virginius and the inhuman butchery of nearly all of her passengers and crew have caused another of those passionate demands which have so often brought ruin to governments and peoples. Only two years ago the President was threatened with impeachment by Senator Sumner because he sent a single man-of-war to protect American interests at Hayti; and now the same people, unmindful of the dangers which they professed of the extension of Executive powers, are demanding of the President that he should violate the Constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof, and commit warlike acts against Spain. He is also urged by a large portion of the public press to proclaim the suspension of the neutrality laws, even before an official account of the massacre has been received, and encourage the fitting out of private expeditions against Cuba.

Of course, those who know President Grant well have no fears that he can be moved by clamors like these from the safe moorings of the Constitution and the laws; and it is probably because the press is conscious of this that it indulges in the most passionate outbursts of fiery rhetoric. It seems to us that recklessness like this is unworthy of American journalism, and shows that those men who profess to be leaders of public opinion are simply its slaves.

We have no doubt but that the Administration will take a stand that will cause it to be respected in the forum of nations; and the fact that we do not retaliate upon the barbarous Cubans in kind, and thus place ourselves measurably upon a level with them, will redound to our credit and to the ultimate security of the lives and liberties of American citizens abroad.

One of the most unreliable papers in the United States is the New York Herald. It is purely sensational. A short time ago it had three or four columns purporting to be a "telegraphic account" of the Modoc execution. This was afterwards proven to be forgeries written in that papers own office. Ten or twelve days ago it published sensational "dispatches from Madrid" to the effect that an attempt had been made in the Spanish capitol to mob and assassinate our Minister, and that the Government of Spain had replied to his representations with insult. It has since been compelled to publish the fact that these dispatches, like the others, were not wholly devoid of truth, but were absolute forgeries. It is really surprising that a paper which is thus notorious for the false character of its news should be able to find any number of readers.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER takes a bold stand against gift enterprises in the shape of picture premiums, offered to subscribers and said to be worth so much more than the price of a periodical. The Observer does not publish pictures but publishes news. Any person desiring a comprehensive weekly newspaper, filled with just the news that every family wants, and free from any clap-trap, or objectionable matter of any kind; will hardly do better than by sending $3 to S. I. PRIME & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

The Chief of the Engineer Corps at Washington has sent orders to the various officers of the engineer corps in charge of the harbors along the coast, to put them in proper condition to resist any possible attacks from the sea. The Engineer Department will also prepare at once torpedoes with the necessary electric cable instruments, tackle, &c., to be planted at proper points along the coast. This action has been determined upon for some time, and the torpedoes being in readiness, this was considered a very proper time to put them in position.

The facility with which some of our modern politicians can adapt themselves to circumstances is really amusing. Of course they mingle with the dear people because they love (?) them. They lean over bars of ordinary hight with as much grace as a member of parliament, and gaze through the very thickest of tumbler bottoms with a persistency that would put the modern astronomer to blush. They are ready to "support the Constitution and"—draw pay, if they can get the chance.

His Excellency GOV. CALDWELL has just filled the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge BOYDEN by appointing WM. S. BYNUM, of Lincolnton, a Judge of the Supreme Court.

The Quakers are a very sensible folk in many things, if not in all. At their recent Convention in Lynn, Mass. one of their authorised speakers said it was wrong to teach children as truth what they would oftentimes find out was untruth.—Graphic.

If that doctrine were carried out—and what a pity that it isn't—the trade of some teachers would be gone, and the next generation would have something else to do than to unlearn the errors of the present.

A school boy being requested to write a composition on the subject of "pins," produced the following: "Pins are very useful. They have saved the lives of a great many men, women and children—in fact, whole families." "How so?" asked the puzzled teacher; and the boy replied, "Why, by not swallowing them."—Exchange.

This is the match to the story of that other boy who defined salt a "the stuff that makes potatoes taste bad when you don't put any on."

Courage is the first requisite to statesmanship in these times. The present Congress will be judged, not by what its enemies say of it, but by its own deeds. Action—moderate and judicious—upon grave questions of public policy is demanded by public opinion; and, therefore, we hope and believe that every statesman mindful of the responsibilities resting upon him, will boldly do his duty.

The recent prospect of war has caused great activity in all the Navy Yards of the nation. In Norfolk, Washington, Brooklyn and Philadelphia the work has been driven night and day. The result will be that our Navy will be put in a much better condition.

The Union Banking Company of Philadelphia, which suspended during the panic, has resumed business with its capital increased to $700,000.

CORRESPONDENCE

Our Norfolk Correspondence. No. 2.

NORFOLK, VA., November 26th, 1873.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The war talk continues without abatement. Since my last the Mahopec [iron clad] and Ossipee [wooden sloop] have sailed from Hampton Roads, bound for Key Westward. And to-day we note, after a personal survey of the field, evidences of an increased activity in the Navy Yard. It may interest your readers to learn that the sentiment of the people here is to stand by the Government. I have heard the matter discussed among ex-officers of the Confederate army and navy and the general feeling is that I have described. I have talked with all classes and can testify that there is a very warm war spirit in Norfolk, and I believe in Portsmouth also. The public sympathies are easily aroused, and a long course of outrages and wrongs against humanity, at large, have stirred the popular heart here as well as elsewhere to a pitch of manly indignation.

AT FORT MONROE.

At this great work there are evidences of activity also. Additional guns of the heaviest calibre have been mounted; carriages for the most formidable ordinance have been shipped South; and there is a general air of bustle and activity. The military sentiment, as far as we have been able to gather it, is in favor of a prompt and decisive policy.

METHODIST CHURCH SOUTH.

This large and respectable body of ecclesiastics assembled this morning in the Cumberland Street Church at 11 o'clock with Bishop Kuner, of Louisiana, presiding. The Rev. J. E. Edwards of Richmond preached the conference sermon.

This body represents its church with just decorum, if we may judge from the first day's proceedings. These show the Methodist clergy to be up to the full standard of the other Protestant Churches, and an honor to the State.

NORFOLK.

A word about the town may not be out of place. Our banks have gotten along very nice. Our merchants are getting cheerful; money is easier in all quarters, and cotton piles in on us in a manner wonderful to behold. People in the country have really very little idea of what is done here in a quiet and solid way. For example. The tonnage of this port, market boats included, in 1872 up to Oct. 31 was 952,419 tons. For the same period in 1873 it was 1,037,262. Showing an increase up to date of 84,943 tons, which is a very handsome exhibit for our city by the sea. N.

Proceedings of County Commissioners.

OFFICE BOARD COMMISSIONERS }
Pasquotank Co. Nov. 24, 1873. }

Commissioners met to-day. Present James S. Wilcox, Emanuel Davis and Abram Morris.

On motion James S. Wilcox was chosen Chairman pro tem, the Chairman being absent.

Ordered that the following bills be allowed:

Charles Fletcher, $31 for services as guard at jail one month; Dr. A. S. Morgan $1.25 for medical services at Poor House and Jail; D. B. Bradford $6.85 for lime and salt furnished Poor House; David Rombach $1.87 for hauling lumber to Poor House; D. S. Kramer $3 for two window sashes for Poor House; Brodrick & Smith $57.23 for provisions furnished Poor House for October; Brodrick & Smith $81.19 for provisions furnished Poor House in the month of November; Brodrick & Smith $29.65 for stove, blankets, &c., furnished Jail; W. W. Griffin $23.70 for 1896 feet of lumber furnished the County at the Poor House.

On motion Board adjourned.

JNO. T. PRICE, Clerk.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 24.—Private letters received here say that for some time past the inhabitants of a portion of North Western Iowa, particularly within the Counties of Lyon and Osceola, have been suffering severely from the lack of actual necessities of life, caused by the utter failure of the grain crop there last Summer. These sufferers are in need of everything in the way of food, fuel and clothing. Several women have died from want.

From Raleigh.

In the Senate the past week among the introduction of a number of bills and resolutions we note the following: in relation to the financial condition of the country, requesting the Congressmen from this State to use their influence to obtain an expansion of the currency; for an adjournment of the General Assembly on 24th of December; the bill to lay off the new county of Pamlico was taken up and passed its several readings. The bill allows the Commissioners of the two counties of Craven and Pamlico an extension of one year for the settlement of the county debt; the bill extending time of Sheriffs to 1st of February on payment of 75 per cent of taxes "and all taxes actually collected" was adopted; a resolution in regard to the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, requesting Hon. W. A. Graham to prepare a document setting forth all the facts bearing on this subject to vindicate the truth of the claims set up by the people of Mecklenburg, and to maintain the character of previous Legislatures for fidelity to the honor of the State and to the truth of history.

In the House among the bills and resolutions we notice the following: to enable foreign guardians of infants and insane persons to remove the estates of their wards from the State; to prevent the enticing of servants from fullfilling their contracts when employed and harboring them; to exempt persons from taxation who shall establish factories in the manufacture of the products of the State; for the relief of such counties which have not received the compensation allowed by law for the support of lunatics; a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Camden county was passed.

CURES ALL KINDS OF CATARRH.

So successful has Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery proven, as a constitutional treatment for Catarrh, when coupled with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, applied locally by the use of Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche (the only method of reaching the upper and back cavities of the head,) that the proprietor of these medicines has long offered a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. The two medicines, with instrument, for $2 by Druggists.

A SPECIMEN OUT OF THOUSANDS.

Cortland, Ill., April 28, 1873.

DR. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir.—It is with pleasure I make this statement to you that after taking medicine for twenty years for the Catarrh I tried your Catarrh Remedy and effected a cure, so that it has not troubled me for two years. S. WHEELER.

STEELING OUR THUNDER.

People should beware of those impostors who copy Dr. Pierce's original style of advertising, by offering various sized rewards for cases of Catarrh and other diseases which they cannot cure. Those who do not possess sufficient intelligence to write an origiual advertisement are not likely to have made great and valuable discoveries in Medicine.

Bishop Matthew Simpson of the Methodist Church is a respondent in a contested will case in Marshall Mich The testator Thomas Duncan made a million in oil boring, and died in 1871. He was a devoted Methodist, and while he left nothing to his brother William, he bequeathed $40,000 to Bishop Simpson, $10,000 to the Battle Creek M. E. Church, $50,000 to Mr. Leech, a Methodist Episcopal preacher; $25,000 to a M. E. Church at Plummer, Pa., $10,000 to the M. E. Church at Pithole, about $35,000 and house in Pittsburg, to his mother; sums of from $30,000 down to various relatives and friends, including $20,000 to William Jackson, a blacksmith at Pittsburg, who had lost the use of an eye, and who does not appear to have been related to Duncan; $30,000 to erect a monument over the testator and his father; the residue of the estate to be devoted to any religious Methodist object that the executors Bishop Simpson and James Long of Philadelphia, might deem best.

"Going through" a town in a financial sense, must be an enterprise requiring genius and boldness. Gilman, Ill. was confidentially operated upon in that way a little while ago. An enterprising stranger, in the first place, bought all the live stock, and made large contracts ahead. He followed up this stroke of business by borrowing nearly all the money in the town. Immediately after he borrowed a horse and buggy and left. But he was brought back again. Gilman couldn't bear to part with so great a man, and, rather than lose him, has provided him with lodgings at the public expense.

The city of Dover, N. H., has just attained its 250th birthday, and is seven years older than Boston. The Dover people do not seem to be much impressed by the fact, and have made no arrangement for speeches and dinners, although there is some small talk of a monument. One indignant correspondent sends to the Dover newspaper the words of Mr. Leveridge, the first Minister of Dover. "He who does not think of his ancestors will be neglected by his posterity." Very likely.

The Island of Cuba has an area of forty two thousand square miles, that is, about one thousand square miles greater in extent than Virginia, and is as large as Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, with one third of Maine thrown in. Great in extent and reesources, she presents a most inviting field to enterprise, and by proper developement can be made an empire in herself.

A farmer in Kansas recently found himself short of shot, when at midnight a pair of burglars called upon him. He had a gun, and he had powder, and he had a box of fever pills. Into the gun went the pills, and after a moment into the burglars, one of whom was killed and the other severely wounded. Neither of the scoundrels is prepared to certify that the pills did him any good.

On the 29th ult., in New York Judge Davis fined Messrs. Graham, Fullerton, and W. O. Bartlett, senior members of Tweed's counsel in the late trial, $250 each, after subjecting them to a sharp lecture, for a breach of good morals in passing him a paper giving reasons why he should not preside at the trial. The junior members of the counsel were let off with a reprimand.

A STARTLING TRUTH!—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon riper into consumption, or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs; when by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry their lives have been preserved to a green old age.

That was a nice, cautious, lonely old lady in Hopedale, Conn., who kept a $1,000 bond and $1,000 in bank-notes in her house because she couldn't trust the bank. She hasn't the money now, though. Man came (with a pistol) and carried away the treasure.

There are many excellent reasons for not sleeping in church. Here is a new one. In North Adams a somnolent young gentleman upon awaking found his false teeth lying upon his bosom, with many heartless neighbors enjoying the spectacle.

Since the Introduction of

PERRY DAVIS'S

PAIN-KILLER.

And after thirty years' trial, the "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the great medicine of the world, for there is no religion of the globe into which it has not found its way, and none where it has not been largely and highly prized. Moreover, ther is no climate to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of considerable variety of diseases; it is admirably suited for every race It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every medicine chest; and is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues, from persons of the highest character and respo sibility. Physicians of the first respectibility recommend it as a most effectual preparation for the extinction of pain. It is not only the best remedy ever known for Bruises, Cuts, Burns, &c., but for Dysentery or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it i a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapid ity of action. In the great cities of India and other hot climates, it has become the Standard Medicine for all such complaints, as well as for Dysentery, Liver Complaints, and other kindred disorders. For Coughs and Colds, Canker, Asthma, and Rheumatic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abandant and convincing testimony to be an invnluable medicine. No article ever attained such unbounded popularity. As an external and internal medicine, the Pain-Killer stands unrivaled.

Thirty Years are certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN-KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparelled popularity it has attained. It is Sure and Effective remedy. It is sold in almost every country in the world, and is becoming more and more popular every year. Its healing properties have been fully tested, all over the world, and it needs only to be known to be prized. Be sure you buy none but the genuine, manufactured by PERRY DAVIS & Son, Providence, R. I.,

Sold by all Druggists. Nov.-5-1m.

S KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek, "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate, or restore. The favor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates Dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance. It is the SAME in QUALITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO, and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only Fifty Cents per Bottle.

Woman's Glory is Her Hair.

LYON'S KATHAIRON

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

Cash! Cash!! Cash!!!

After this date I shall sell for CASH.

I have made this change because I can no longer afford to sell on credit. I must sell for CASH because I can only buy for cash. I must sell for cash because parties who have had my goods will not pay. I must sell for cash because it is too much trouble to collect best accounts and I must sell for cash because it is impossible to collect bad accounts. In making this change I am well aware that my sales will be curtailed; but I prefer to sell less and not be continually harrassed with an inability to collect accounts to meet indebtedness. I have tried plainly to explain my reasons for adopting the Cash system. Some of my customers pay well others do not. I cannot afford to carry the bad to save the good, as a whole I must discard all or accept all the conclusion is plain. I am engaged exclusively in the Drug Trade. I shall endeavor to keep a first-class Drug Store. I shall spare no pains to make it such, keeping pace with every modern improvement. I shall mark goods lower and shall use my best efforts to please. I shall endeavor to supply my customers with any goods not on hand in the shortest time possible. I am anxious to please and to sell you, but please remember I sell for CASH.

What are the desirable features of a Family Sewing Machine?

It must be simple in construction, that it may be easily learned, and not liable to get out of order; silent in its operation—rapid in the execution of work—easily changed from one kind of work to another—capable of doing every variety of work—must run easy, so as not to fatigue the operator, and with all these, must be durable.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wilmington Star.
New York Advertisements.
Notice.
Vick's Floral Guide.
Assignee's Notice.

Local and Personal.

☞ The vote on the railroad subscription in Camden will be taken to-morrow.

☞ The latest quotations from New York are Gold 109; Cotton 16¼c; Corn 72 to 74. At Norfolk, Cotton 15c; Corn [illegible].

☞ Coinjock has been made a Port of Entry and ENOCH F. BAXTER Esq. has been appointed Deputy Collector. His office will be at Coinjock Canal Bridge.

☞ While we do not endorse all the points of our correspondent "S"—see first page—we must admit that there is force in much that he says. The subject is an important one.

☞ To our friends who complain of their irregular reception of the CAROLINIAN we would say that we mail them regularly and always on time. The fault is not with us.

☞ Dr. WM. NICHOLSON is now spending a few days at his old home in Belvidere. For the past few years he has been the General Agent on Indian Affairs, located at Lawrence, Kansas.

☞ One night a short time ago the store of O. K. V. HOWARD, at Washington, this State, was robbed of a lot of goods, and on the 23rd ult. the dwelling house of L. HYATT, of the same place, came very near being destroyed by fire.

☞ Judging from our exchanges, the marriage record indicates nothing like suspension in that line. A cynic would ask: What curious law of nature is it that impels young people to seek to lighten their troubles by doubling them?

☞ The space usually occupied by a story on our first page is this week taken up with notices of the December Magazines, and our Agricultural column is filled with other matter of special interest at this time.

☞ A farmer the other day rather got the best of us. Being an intelligent, well posted man, we told him we would like to have something from his pen. He replied that we could have a pig provided we paid him $10 for it. We drove on.

☞ On our first page will be found an interesting account of the progress and improvements going on in Dare County. Her people have long been known for their generous hospitality, and we are glad to learn of their material prosperity.

☞ The Friends Quarterly Meeting at Belvidere on Saturday and Sunday last was very largely attended. On the latter day at least 1500 people were at the meeting. Eminent Ministers from Michigan, Indiana and elsewhere were present.

☞ In preambulating the city on the busy days one sees quite a good many people on the streets, and every appearance indicates that trade is brisk; yet our merchants complain of dull times and light sales. We hope the advancing price of cotton and the prospects of good prices for corn will relieve the matter some. The financial panic is now over, and there is no good reason why the winter tradeshould not be good.

☞ A well-to-do young farmer residing not a hundred miles from Elilzabeth City, and who still lingers in the valley of "single cussedness," was overheard the other day to say: "There is a certain girl in this county who can carry my smoke house key for life if she'll only say the word." Why don't he sum up courage and "pop the question," for, remember, that "faint heart never won fair lady," and that no girl worth having will give herself away without being asked for.

☞ No town has more interest in liberally supporting its home paper than Elizabeth City. No paper in the State is more of a home paper than the NORTH CAROLINIAN. In season and out, from January to December it advocates and advances in some way the interests of the place. Every additional subscriber we get is, therefore, an indirect benefit to every man in the place. We write of the town and county and district—help them all in every way we can. The way to make our labor most effective is to increase our audience. And yet, with few exceptions, how few take the time and trouble to do anything in this way. Is this quite right? Think of it, and then act accordingly."

The war cloud is apparently passing away. Spain has made the proper concessions, promptly according to the demands of our Government, and this of course will avert the dread calamity of war. Let us be thankful, for of all the scourges of humanity war is the most dire. Spain agrees to release the Virginius prisoners still living, provide for the families of the slain, return the steamer, punish the murderers and salute the American flag.

Congress convened on Monday. BLAINE was reelected speaker. A number of bills have already been introduced in both Houses.

The Steamship Ville du Havre, which left New York on the 15 ult. for Havre sunk on the 30 ult. It is reported that over 200 persons were lost.

☞ On Saturday last an old gentleman named CARRINGTON, from Oswego, N. Y. accidently shot himself while out ducking in a boat on Currituck Sound. He died instantly.

☞ The railroad Engineers have finished the survey alluded to in our last issue—that is the route from Camden Court House by way of Shaw's Corner and Moyock to Shingle Landing. They are now sounding the Pasquotank River for the most eligible point of crossing and examining the swamp from the river to the city. Considering the unprecedented financial embarrasements of all the great business interests of the country, everything connected with this railroad enterprise is progressing much more favorably than expected. The officers of the Company with the Contractor will be here in a few days, either the latter part of this week or the beginning of next. They mean business—are acting in good faith. They mean to build the road, and will do it so soon as the promised subscriptions are secured.

☞ On Friday last our affable friend A. E. JACOBS, of Norfolk, gave us a call as is usual when in the city. He was on his return from a tour through Hyde, Tyrrell and Dare counties. He informs us that the passage from Alligator to Nag's Head was a stormy one and that he came near losing his life. On the morning of the 24th ult. he started from the former place in CHARLES ASHBY's Canoe, having employed a colored man named SAMUEL HILL to row. Very early in the day a severe gale arose which continued getting worse to the end of the trip. For a while, to use boatman's phrase, they had up the "goose wing and jib," but the increasing storm compelled them to take them down. From Croatan Light House up it became so rough that the canoe took in quantities of water. On reaching opposite the Nag's Head Hotel, in order to land, HILL attempted to raise the centre board, but in doing so he slipped and fell backward into the water and was drowned. It was impossible to rescue him and it was with the utmost difficulty Mr. JACOBS was enabled to get to shore. HILL was a very respectable colored man and leaves a wife and small family. To the latter Mr. JACOBS forwarded a letter stating the painful facts, expressing his deep sympathy and enclosing a ten dollar bill.

One of the most prompt, courteous and reliable firms we know of is Lowenburg urg & Jacobs of 22 & 24 Market Square Norfolk, Va. It is a pleasure to deal with such gentlemen.

The reason why Fowler sells so low is, he has adopted the one price plan and sells for cash only.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Vick's Floral Guide for 1874. It is a magnificent publication. We advise every lover of flowers to send for it.

There is said to be a very prudent man in Danburry who provides himself with an extra hat for the month of November. He carries it in his coat tail pocket, and when the wind lifts the one from his head he straightway jams on the other, and then puts after the first, and thus not only saves much chafing from the unregenerate, but actually gets credit as a philanthropist—the general impression being that he is in pursuit of somebody else's hat.

LIVER ADVERTISEMENTS.—A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopœia to protect the human system against the bodily ills so reproduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by empoisoned air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as a safeguard, is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I couldn't have boiled it," says one, "scarcely credited the silver isomorphs that one man can believe what one sees," says another. It is the very thing we need in this unwholesome section of country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self-defence, the first law of nature, induces three-fourths of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable anti-biote before the next sickly season sets in. In winter, when the system requires extra vigor and elasticity to enable it to baffle the effects of damp and cold, the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to fasten upon muscles and nerves that have been braced up by this excellent invigorant and nervine; nor will the severities of the season, which have such a disastrous effect on the pulmonary organs of the feeble and delicate, be likely to exercise the same untoward influences in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs) have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative. The fits of indigestion and irregularities of the bowels which proceed from sudden changes of weather may always be averted by a timely use of the Bitters.

Beware of Counterfeits!

JOB MOSES' SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS

Are extraordinarily COUNTERFEITED. Dishonest Druggists endeavor to sell the counterfeit to you, as being of greater profits. The genuine have the name of Job Moses on each package. All others are worthless imitations. The GENUINE Pills are unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. They moderate all excessive and cure all suppression of the menses when caused by cold, inflammation, or disease. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, they will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although very powerful, contain nothing hurtful to the most delicate constitution.

Circular in English, German and French around each bottle gives full direction and advice.

The GENUINE Pills are sold at most drug stores, but if your druggist cannot supply the GENUINE, do not be persuaded to accept any counterfeit or bogus article but send One Dollar to the sole proprietor, Job Moses, 18 Cortlandt Street, New York, with name of nearest office at which you will call for the package, and a bottle of the GENUINE Pills securely and safely packed in plain wrappers will be sent by return express.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.

Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test and its perfect burning qualities are proved by its continued use in over 500,000 families. Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it.

The immense yearly loss of life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States, is appalling.

Fire Insurance Companies and fire Commissioners throughout the Country recommend the ASTRAL as the best safeguard when lamps are used. Send for circular.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recomendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousand more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimpotant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate famil paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no partie and waring no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle-markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for and subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the weekly sun at this rate. Any one who sends a single dolar will get the paperfor one year.

We have no travelling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discount from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. Adiscount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of 28 columns. Daly circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or 6,00 a year. To clubs of 10 or, over, a discount of 20 per cent.

Bradley's PATENT ENAMEL Paint.

MADE FROM

PURE WHITE LEAD, LINSEED OIL & ZINC, Chemically Combined.

Will last three times as long as the best lead and oil mixed in the ordinary way.

Always ready for use. Sold by the gallon

One Gallon covers Twenty square yards two coats.

FROM PROF. W. G. SIMMONS.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4th, 1873.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT,

Dear Sir:—We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building and are well pleased with it.

Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability, and facility of application it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market. Very Respectfully,

W. G. SIMMONS.

DARNESTOWN, Montgomery County, Md., October 6th, 1873.

MR. KNIGHT, Sole Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint,

Dear Sir:—I received your favor of the 3rd inst., asking my opinion of the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, for which you are Agent.

It affords me pleasure to add my testimonial with many others, of its value and thorough adaptation to the rural District especially. Having a practical experience of thirty years, in preparing plans and building with all branches of artisans and mechanics, and told most of the material for painting. I was induced to try "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," owing to its portability, being mixed of all shades, and quantities to suit, I applied it for inside and outside work and found it dried thoroughly, covered the surface perfect, and dried with a beautiful Enamel Luster and covered 20 square yards two coats, I have recommended its use to others in the city of Washington and lower Maryland, with equal satisfaction and good results. Milling colors by ordinary mechanics is not often done to the satisfaction of "Proprietors" and "Paint" being "already mixed" all desired shades, and frequently to suit, renders it more desirable in Rural Districts. I cheerfully recommend its general use and feel assured that all who use it will be satisfied that it is all that is claimed "Durable, Beautiful and Economical.

Yours respectfully,

JNO. L. DU TIEF, Architect & Builder.

BALTIMORE, December 10th 1872.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT—DEAR SIR: It affords me much pleasure to say to you that the Bradley Patent Enamel Paint far exceeds my expectation in economy and beauty, and I have every reason to believe, in durability. More than twelve months since, I painted the roof of my Hotel (Mansion House) with the Bradly Patent Enamel Paint, and I was so well pleased with it, I determined to paint the outside of the Hotel, and am most happy to state it gives me perfect satisfaction. In conclusion I will say, if this testimonial will be of any advantage to you, you are at liberty to use it.

Yours, most respectfully, ISSAC ALBERTSON,
Mansion House Hotel, N. W. Cor. Fayette and St., Paul Streets, Baltimore.

From Hon. JOHN WETHERED.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT: At the recommendation of a friend, I was induce to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I nave pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface then you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is free from disagreeable odor. Yours, Respectfully JOHN WETHERED

THE PLAINS, Fauquier county, Va., kegs, h 1873.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT, Sir: The paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like harness and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as Testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our peole, in excellence of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it be desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

PLEASANTVILLE Hartford county, Maryland February 26th, 1873.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT—Dear Sir; I am very happy to inform you that your Patent Enamel Paint has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any other Paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty, paramount to any other.

Very respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

C. P. KNIGHT, Sole General Agent,

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalisis and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where, and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can eq[ual].

A railroad will soon be built to Norfolk, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings cossist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A farm of 700 acres in Pasquotank County 10 miles from town, with fine two story dwelling, large barn, kitchen and other outhouses; as also, two other dwellings, barns and other houses at different points on the farm. This farm is all cleared but 150 acres, is free from swamps and other waste land, and is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, &c. The price is 14,000 in easy payments.

A farm of 500 acres in Pasquotank County, 6 miles from town, and one mile from the River, with good new dwelling built in modern style, barn, stables, four tenant houses scattered over the farm, fine water, &c. This farm is situated on the most public road in the County, has 300 acres cleared and balance in splendid pine, oak, cypress, maple, sweet gum, and other valuable timber. It is peculiarly adapted to raising cotton, $50 per acre, it having been realized on a part of it this year in cotton. It also grows corn, wheat, oats, and other crops well. Price $12,000 in easy payments.

A valuable vacant lot in the town of E. City containing a half square, on the principal street in the town immediately opposite Court House quare. Has an iron fence in front, fine shrubbery, and is near the large new Hotel justerected. Price $2,000 in easy payments.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both areoffered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Three farms—one of 100 acres, one of 80 acres and one of 190 acres, within two miles of town, mostly cleared land. Price $20 per acre for each tract—payments on easy terms. Also many other valuable farms and town lots too numerous to mention.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1874—SEVENTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscelany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures; the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with a similar class, THE ALDINE is an unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possesser of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quality of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality will greater facilities of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possesses all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at the trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Morgan and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

Premium for 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire: the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact the similies of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signatnre of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20, 1873.

MESSRS. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen:—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful repreaentations by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(S'igned) TAOS. MORAN.

These chro mose are in every sense American. They a re by an original American process, with ma terial manufacture, from designs of American sceneay by an American printer, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better an interest no foreign production can inspire and neither are they any worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—but for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprize that renders their distribntion possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent mounted, varnished and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtained only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscridtions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

BANKRUPTCY.

THE FIFTY PER CENT. CLAUSE.

As there seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the effect of the provision of the Bankrupt Act, commonly called the 50 per cent. clause, we publish the following extracts from the Act:

The second clause of the tairty-third section as amended by the Act of July 27, 1868, provides "that no discharge shall be granted to a debtor whose assets shall not be equal to fifty per centum of the claims proved against his estate upon which he shall be liable as the principal debtor, unless the assent of writing of a majority in number and value of his creditors to whom he shall have become liable as principal debtor, or who shall have proved their claims, filed in the case at or before the time of hearing of the application for discharge.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled—that the provisions of the second clause of the thirty-third section of said act as amended by the first section of an act in amendment thereof, approved July 27th, 1868, shall not apply to those debts from which the bankrupt seeks a discharge which were contracted prior to January 1st, 1869.

The true meaning is not that a bankrupt must be able to pay fifty per cent of his debts, before he can obtain a discharge, as many believe; but that his estate, in the hands of his assignee, at the time of the discharge must be equal, to fifty per cent. of the amount of the debts.

1. That he owes as principal:
2. That have been proved against his estate in bankruptcy; and
3. That he has contracted since the 31st day of December, 1868.

Or, if a majority in number and value of those who have proved their debts, to whom the bankrupt is indebted as principal or debts contracted subsequent to Dec., 31, 1868, consent in writing to the discharge—such bankrupt may be discharged forever from all his debts.

If a debtor, owing three thousand dollars as principal, twenty five hundred of which indebtedness was contracted prior to January 1, 1869, and five hundred subsequent to that time, files his petition in bankruptcy, and all his creditors prove against him, and there are no assets in the hands of the assignee, the petitioner will be entitled to a discharge; but it will be a bar only to the debts contracted prior to January 1, 1869.—If no creditors prove, the discharge will be good against all debts, whether contracted before or after January 1, 1869.

The practical effect in bankruptcy-cases generally is, that creditors fail to prove their debts, finding it ordinarily unprofitable. They have had, in a large majority of instances, heretofore the trouble and expense of making proofs, without receiving any return. The 50 per cent. bugbear, therefore when viewed in the light of the law and common-sense, disappears.

EXEMPTIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.

The exemptions under the 14th section of the Bankrupt Act are as follows:

1. Household and Kitchen furniture to an amount not exceeding $500,00
2. Wearing apparel of Bankrupt and wife,
3. Uniform, &c., if he has been a soldier in the United States Army.
4. Personal property of the value of $500,00 to be selected by the Bankrupt.
5. A Homestead and the dwelling and buildings used therewith, not exceeding in value the sum of $1000,00; or in lieu thereof, any lot in any city, town or village not exceeding in value the sum of $1000.000.
6. The reversionary interest in the Homestead lands.

In laying off the Exemptions in some Districts, the Assignees are ordered to accept and abide by any assignment of a homestead which has been made by a Sheriff under the State laws; or which has been assigned upon the application of a debtor in accordance with the laws of North Carolina. Where no such assignment of homestead has been made, the assignee will proceed to set apart such homestead, and make the other exemptions according to the rules of the bankrupt Court.

The report of such exemptions when made by the assignee can be excepted to by the bankrupt or by any creditor, within twenty days after the allotment of such exempt property.

EFFECT OF THE DISCHARGE IN BANKRUPTCY UPON JUDGMENT

It is the opinion of many of our best lawyers that the discharge in bankruptcy, discharges judgment debts existing against the bankrupt at the time of filing his petition, and that therefore the liens existing by virtue of such judgments, upon homesteads are wiped out, and cannot afterwards be enforced. In fine, that the practical effect of the discharge, is to leave a man, whose home-tead was encumbered by judgments, free from all his debts, of every nature, and the owner in fee simple of such homestead.

Again many lawyers, equally prominent in the profession, are of opinion that such will not be the effect of the discharge. That the liens and that when it determines under our State laws, the judgment creditor may enforce his lien and collect his debts.

To place this matter beyond doubt, the following rule has been adopted for the benefit of petitioners who are not willing to run any risk.

That the petitioning debtor may file his petition in the District Court, addressed to Hon. Geo. W. Brooks, asking that the judgment creditor, or creditors, show cause why the liens existing in pursuance of their judgments should not be adjusted by said court, and their present value ascertained, to be made the true value of such lien or liens by the decree or judgment of said District Court, in bankruptcy.

FILING PETITIONS AND SCHEDULES.

Petitions and Schedules must be in duplicate. Petitioner should sign each sheet, except oath to schedules. It is not necessary to file sheets of schedules that are not used. All papers in bankruptcy must be sworn to before a Register in Bankruptcy, U. S. Commissioner, or Clerk of the court.

The following deposit to secure costs is required at time of filing Petition. Register $10, Clerk $20, Messenger $5. Bankruptcy blanks can be had of M. B. Culpepper, Elizabeth City, prepared in sets for Two Dollars per set. The original papers in all such cases should be sent to T. W. Costen, Register, Elizabeth City, N. C.
